Tonight was a nice start to the conference season. We knew we'd have our hands full at #1 and #2 singles, but were hoping to sneak one of those spots out. Ethan played a really good set and a half, but then his opponent just elevated his game and Ethan wasn't able to get the errors that he was benefitting from early in the match. Andy did a really nice job at #2 singles but was simply overmatched. The rest of the matches went as expected as we were pretty dominant in the remainder of the matches. We have two upcoming tough matches at Oconomowoc and at West Bend East to see where we stack up. I was pleased with how we recovered after a 0-5 weekend in the Waukesha South Blackshirt Invite.
