Our final match of the day was an exciting early season contest against our friendly rival. It was pleasing to see Allan and Philip get a nice 3 set win at the 4th doubles after not getting to play much in the first two matches of the day. James and Michael played solid tennis at 3 doubles to both end a perfect 3-0 for the day. Gabe and Nathan teamed up to pull out a critical match that tied up the match score 3-3 after we were in a 1-3 hole with #2 singles, #4 singles and #2 doubles left on the court. Gabe and Nathan both went 3-0 on the day as well with Nathan playing with 3 different partners. Kevin pulled out a nice second set tie break win after trailing in the second set and making a nice comeback. The final match of the day was certainly the best one of the day. Tanner came back to 4-5 in the second set to get on serve after trailing 1-5, but couldn't complete the comeback yet. After trailing the whole tiebreak he took his first lead at 8-7 only to get down match point at 8-9. He played 3 straight masterful points to pull out the match for himself and secure a 4-3 team victory and complete his perfect day too. While we no doubt have plenty to work on, today proved to be a super start to the 2017 season!
