Losing is never a good thing, but we can certainly always learn from a loss. After a great first weekend of tennis, we stepped up in competition and had some struggles, especially in doubles. As we continue to seek out the best lineup and combination of players, we took some lumps against a team with a solid doubles lineup. We had some chances to win the match at one and two singles, but each opponent was just a bit more consistent than we were and got hot at the right time late in their matches. Gabe did a nice job stringing some good tactics together to pull out a win against a super hustler. Kevin continued to get the job done anchoring our lineup at the #4 spot.
