Finishing out the Little Ten Conference with a team win is an awesome way to close it out. I really liked a resiliency tonight as we most definitely didn't come with our "A" game at a few spots. Kudos to Kris and Andy along with Kevin for pulling out their 3 setters to secure the narrow 4-3 win. Things looked bad down 3-4 in the 3rd set of Kevin's match, but as he has done all season he found a way to win. He has been so dependable this year that it a shock when he struggles. I was very pleased with Tanner and Matt who finished the season at 5-1 in conference with just a narrow 3 set loss to West Bend East blemishing their record. As we wrap up the regular season tomorrow against Mukwonago we definitely have things to work on heading into subsectionals next week, but I'm proud of our 4-2 conference dual match record and appreciate the boy's efforts.
