Any time you win more match tie breaks than your opponent you feel like you escaped with a good win. We played a total of 4 tie breaks tonight and won 3 of them which proved to be the difference in a hard fought competitive match. I was really pleased with how Phil and Thomas rebounded in their match tonight after a tough 3rd set loss last night. Then to be down the whole first set and steal a tie break was huge. They then rebounded very nicely again after an ugly 2nd set to win the Match Tie break in dominant fashion. I was very impressed with how our 2 doubles team played in the 2nd set and in their match tie break as well. At 1 doubles and 1 singles I was pleased with the battles we gave in the second set. James and Gabe both played strong, smart second sets to give us much needed victories at those spots and help secure a much needed, confidence boosting match win on Parent's Night.
