Tonight's matches were generally quite lopsided and unfortunately we ended up on the wrong side of a 3-4 match. Gabe continued to play well at #4 singles. Phil and Thomas played a fantastic 1st set and continued to build momentum. The closest match of the night was at 2nd doubles where we were able to earn a nice 6-4, 6-2 win. After a lot of matches and very few practices we are able to get two days of practice before traveling to West Bend West on Thursday. We hope to build some momentum at all spots going into our invite this weekend followed by the Conference Tournament next week.
