Another 3-4 loss was tougher to stomach tonight as we dropped 3 of the 5 tiebreaks we played, including 2 of the 3 Match Tie Breaks. All three match tie breaks were being contested at the same exact time and we were all different. Gabe was pretty dominant in his. At 1 doubles we held a 6-3 lead and couldn't reclaim the lead once we relinquished it. James was always down 1 or 2 points and couldn't get back to even. We played the whole night from behind and were able to be close in a lot of matches, but ultimately our own errors proved to be too much to overcome. West Bend West was more patient in singles and allowed us to make errors that we committed to many of even in the matches we won. In doubles we need to return serves better and avoid hitting to the net person so often. Gabe in singles and Phil and Thomas as a doubles team continued to progress and build momentum as we enter the last few weeks of the season.
