We tried a little different wrinkle in our lineup and came up a bit short. We had competitive matches at most spots, but still can't quite get over the hump. Point for point we're right there, but we still need to finish some shots we've set up or use some better tactics. Our groundstrokes at singles are getting better, but still need more depth and topspin. At doubles we are working to close in and finish volleys. I continue to be pleased with our progress in general, but I get greedy when we're close to closing out a game, set or match and can't quite do it. We're getting better and both the players and I need to celebrate our growth and be patient.
