

HUHS Educator of the Year Nomination Form

A Hartford Union High School full-time educator with at least three years of experience at HUHS is eligible to be nominated for this award. An educator is defined as “a person who educates, especially a teacher, principal, or other person involved in planning or directing education.” (dictionary.com, 2017). Nominations can come from students, parents, Hartford Area community members, and employees of the HUHS District. The person(s) making the nomination must sign the nomination form in order for the nomination to be considered.

*Nominations must be submitted to Mary Lynn Christian, HR Supervisor, in the District Office or the school's front entry receptionist no later than 3:00 PM on Friday, March 22, 2019.

The following questions guide the selection committee in selecting the Educator of the Year. On a separate sheet of paper, please answer each of the questions. Your answers must be typed in essay form.

1. How has this educator encouraged learning?
2. How has this educator made a difference to students inside & outside of the classroom?
3. How has this educator provided a good role model to students?
4. How does this educator fit your concept of an outstanding educator?

The selection committee will meet the week of April 1, 2019 to review nominations and select the recipient.

The selection committee will consist of:

1. Eight student representatives: 2 seniors, 2 juniors, 2 sophomores, and 2 freshmen
2. Three educators, preferably prior Educator of the Year recipients
3. At least one school administrator

The name of the awarded educator will be announced through school and community venues, and he/she will be honored at the Hartford Rotary banquet in May. Nominees will receive copies of all nominations submitted on their behalf.

Remember, nominations must be received by 3:00 PM on Friday, March 22, 2019
