Winning all three match tie breaks made the match a lot tighter and was great to pull these out. Mukwonago's #1 singles player is a state qualifier that plays nice tennis. Kevin and Gabe both had hard fought matches and both came up big controlling their match tie breaks. James would have had a similar match as well, but we decided it was best to hold him out to deal with what we hope is a minor injury. Kris and Devin continue to play close competitive matches, but can't quite pull one out. Allan and Nathan continue to be bright spots in the lineup and are progressing well together. They earned a well deserved victory by playing two textbook, perfect doubles points to close out the match tie break. After a very slow start, filled with too many errors, Phil and Robbie settled in and made an impressive comeback from down big in the 2nd set to get to 4-5, but Mukwonago played a flawless last game to seal the set.
