For Immediate Release

HARTFORD UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT SEARCH CONTINUES

December 21, 2018, Hartford, WI – Two candidates for the Superintendent position will visit Hartford Union High School (HUHS) January 8th, and 9th of 2019. Names of the two candidates will be released after school has reconvened January 2, 2019.

Each day one of the new candidates will

- Meet with members of the District Leadership Team
- Tour the District, which encompasses four public Associate School Districts (Hartford Joint 1; Herman, Neosho, Rubicon School District (HNR); Erin School District; and Holy Hill Area School District (HHASD), as well as several parochial Associate Schools (e.g., St. Kilian Catholic School, St. Gabriel Catholic School, and Peace Lutheran School)
- Meet with community members, parents/guardians, students, and staff in a community forum
- Have a second interview with the Board of Education

Community members, parent/guardians, staff and students are invited and encouraged to attend both of the community forums.

- Tuesday, January 8, 2019 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. HUHS Library Media Center
- Wednesday, January 9, 2019 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. HUHS Library Media Center

The new Superintendent will be named at the Regular January 28, 2019 Board of Education meeting.
